Rocky Enterprise Linux 9.2 Manual Pages on command 'laptop-detect.1'

$ man laptop-detect.1

LAPTOP-DETECT(1)   User Commands   LAPTOP-DETECT(1)

NAME

    laptop-detect - attempt to detect a laptop

SYNOPSIS

    laptop-detect [-h|--help|-v|--verbose|-V|--version|-D|--debug]

DESCRIPTION

    Laptop-detect attempts to determine whether it is being run on a laptop or a desktop and appraises its caller of this.

OPTIONS

    -h --help

        Output help information and exit.

    -v --verbose

        be verbose (messages go to STDOUT)

    -V --version

        Output version information and exit.

    -D --debug

        Debug mode.

EXIT STATUS

    0   most likely running on a laptop

    1   most likely NOT running on a laptop

    2   usage error (arguments supplied)

FILES

    /proc/acpi/battery

/proc/pmu/info

/dev/mem

/sys/devices/virtual/dmi/id/chassis_type

/sys/class/power_supply/*/type

/proc/apm

SEE ALSO

dmidecode(8)